Tudeh Party weekly instructions issued to District (Mahalli) Committee No. 7 by the Tehran Provincial (Ayalati) Committee were as follows:

1. For the week beginning 6 July 1952.
 - a. Members should remain as far as possible from keeping Party documents in their homes.
 - b. Members should submit an estimate of the number of copies of the 14 July special edition of Shahbaz that they can sell.
 - c. After reading the newspaper, Azerbaijan, members should give it to sympathizers to read. They should not throw it away.
2. For the week beginning 13 July 1952.
 - a. Penetrate non-Tudeh circles and attempt to establish contact with influential persons.
 - b. The new reading room soon will be opened. Members should devote one night a week to reading there.
 - c. All members should have a "work calendar" to assist in organizing their program of fighting the imperialists and drawing people into discussions.
 - d. Members engaged in peasant activities should not carry documents.
 - e. Unemployed Party members should agitate among the non-Party unemployed in different quarters during the morning and the evening.
